HAPPILY EVER AFTER

When Zeynep falls in love with Deniz, she sets her sights on a dream wedding. Her vision of marital bliss is shattered by the snobbery of her boyfriend's wealthy family. Years later when they meet again, a whirlwind of vengeance, jealousy and passion is set to turn their lives upside down once again.

After the young couple fall head over heels in love, they decide to get married as soon as possible. Zeynep's modest family are overjoyed at the prospect of their daughter marrying such a charming man. But Deniz's mother sees Zeynep as inferior to her well-bred son and refuses to approve their plan.

Deniz believes he can win his mother over. But when his brother too conspires with her to sabotage the wedding, Deniz is slowly convinced he would be making a huge mistake. With the pride of Zeynep's father hurt by their attitude, the wedding is doomed. The bride is left waiting in vain at the wedding table.

Five years on, Zeynep has become a wedding planner, focused on making other couples' dreams come true after hers was cruelly dashed. She has rebuilt her life and, for all the anguish she has suffered, she can at least channel her energy into bringing happiness to others.

However, all her pain is set to come flooding back. After their wedding disaster, Deniz moved to America, graduated from university and went on to head a chain of hotels. He also met a woman named Melisa and they are set to marry. When they decide to wed in Istanbul, a nightmare is brewing for Zeynep.

In a cruel twist of fate, it turns out that her boss is the mother of the woman that Deniz will marry. Hence it falls to Zeynep to organize the magnificent wedding of the man she once loved to another woman. Zeynep must now face all the emotional turmoil, trauma and suffering that she had tried to forget.

It soon becomes clear that this situation is also a major emotional challenge for Deniz himself. Zeynep is powerfully tempted to seek revenge on him for the pain he caused her. But the two of them will discover that their feelings for each other have not been extinguished.

As those powerful passions come back to life, they are set to find themselves overwhelmed by conflicting feelings of anger, jealousy and regret. While Deniz is eaten up by guilt and Zeynep resents both him and his family, they struggle to accept that their flame of romance still burns. When Deniz again starts to get cold feet about his wedding, the scene is set for an emotional rollercoaster that will leave them and those around them in turmoil.
