LONELY HEARTS

Lonely
Hearts

“Lonely Hearts” tells the moving story of two couples passionately in love but torn in different directions by the conflicts and rivalries running through their families. They must battle bravely to overcome powerful challenges that come their way from enemies and rivals who test their devotion to each other.

Teoman and Ayda’s love faces stumbling blocks from the moment they meet at a bizarre party where nobody may share personal information. They are instantly smitten and talk until dawn, but their plan to meet again is thwarted when Ayda is hurt in an accident. Believing she has rejected him, Teoman is crestfallen and they go their separate ways.

Three years later, when he visits his mother Nihan and construction magnate father Hamit, the successful businessman Teoman crosses paths with Ayda again. Both deeply shocked, they feel the same incredible bond between them, giving them a second chance for love once she explains what happened.

But their romance faces another threat in the shape of Mehmet, Ayda’s old university friend. After her father’s death, Ayda must support her mother Gulseren and family as they are left impoverished by her father’s debts. Mehmet helps Ayda morally and financially and loves her, but when he declares his feelings she responds coolly.

Ayda and Teoman’s hopes of a happy ending are also hindered by hostility between their families. Her mother Gulseren was once the lover of Teoman’s father Hamit, but she was devastated when he abandoned her for his future wife Nihan. Both face an uphill task to convince their families they belong together.

Their rocky path to love is echoed by the would-be romance between Teoman’s brother Ozan and the social worker Kumru, who looks after their ailing grandmother. Kumru, already coping with a hostile home environment, must compete with a rival for Ozan’s affections - the scheming Nazli who stands in her way.

Ozan, meanwhile, has other concerns which distract him from romance. In order to realize his dream of opening a restaurant he must raise finances, and despite the warnings of his brother he resorts to a mystery investor who offers to help him. Little does he know, it is actually his cousin Mehmet, Ayda’s suitor, who long sought a chance to muscle in on the family fortunes and sees his opportunity to pounce.

When the restaurant opens, Ozan is shattered to discover that his foolish deal has resulted in Mehmet seizing control of the business. Only his blossoming love with Kumru can give him strength. The two of them, like Teoman and Ayda, must now cling to each other and their love if they are to prevail against the hostile forces ranged against them.
